The Fourth Annual Yearbook Staff Presents
Chips

COMMUNITY
HI
PICTORIAL
SUMMARY

foreword

Another Chips . . . fresh off the presses . . . new . . . entirely different . . . emerges after months of patient toil . . . of vexations and petty catastrophies . . . of minor triumphs and successes . . . All yours . . .

In Chips we give you, the students, yourselves as we have found you . . . a trifle "cocky" . . . gay and frivolous . . . sad and broken-hearted . . . formal and serious . . . never long consistent . . . but always interesting . . . And you, the faculty . . . slightly worried . . . impatient of our efforts . . . generous with your time . . . ever ready to criticize or to encourage . . .

We, the staff, give you the record of a happy year . . . the hectic days . . . the work and play . . . With pictures . . . yes, cartoons . . . impertinence . . . we've tried to catch the laughter and the headaches . . . the pleasant memories . . . They're yours "for keeps" . . . imperishable evidence of a year that now is history.

"That lawyer of mine has his nerve!"

"Why so?"

Listen to this item in his bill,
"For waking up in the night and thinking over your case, $5,000.

A big business man was continually placarding his office and plant with slogans, and bored his friends about their effectiveness and worth.

"Here's a new one I'm putting up," he told a visitor one day and handed him a placard which read: "DO IT NOW!"

A few days later the visitor was back and asked him how his latest slogan had turned out.

"They took it too literally," he complained. "No sooner had I put up the cards than the payroll clerk skipped with two thousand dollars, the bookkeeper eloped with my secretary, and the shop crowd organized a union and demanded a twenty per cent increase in pay."

Sign seen in front of an electric supply store:

Don't kill you wife with work:

LET ELECTRICITY DO IT.

Two men had escaped from an asylum and managed to get into an airplane. At an altitude of about two thousand feet, one decided to jump out.

"O. K.," said his friend, "But you'd better take a parachute."

"Why?"

"Don't be silly," was the reply.
"Can't you see it's raining?"

A Scotchman had been away from home for eleven years. When he returned he found his five brothers wearing long beards.

"Why the hair?" he asked as he confronted the group.

"Dinna ye remember? Ye took the razor with ye."

George Grader: I am sorry to hear of your partner's death. Would you like me to take his place?

Manager: Very much, if you can get the undertaker to arrange it.

They were riding along a beautiful stretch of country road. She was driving, and suddenly spied repair men climbing the telegraph poles.

"Why Harry, just look at those men," she exclaimed. "Do they think I never drove a car before?"

Waiter: Your coffee, sir — special from Australia, Sir.

Chuck Wick: Oh, so that's where you've been!

Usher: How far down do you wish to sit, Sir?

Old Gent: What do you mean? As far down as the chair of course.

Mother: Johnny, why are you feeding the baby yeast?

Johnny: Well, she's swallowed my nickel and I'm trying to raise the dough.

Why are summer days so much longer than those of winter?

Heat expansion, I guess.

"Waiter, there's no chicken in this chicken soup."

"Well, did you ever find a horse in horse radish?"

Hitler's version of "A Tisket, a Tasket" "A Musket, a Casket."

The bright young pupil looked long and thoughtfully at the second examination question, which read, "State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States in any given year." Then his brown eyes cleared and he wrote, "1492 — None."

Now I lay me down to sleep,
The lectures dry, the subject deep.
If he should quit before I wake,
Give me a poke, for heaven's sake.

Did you know Adam was a danger?

Nope did you?

Sure, he fell for the big apple didn't he.

Bathing Suit — A costume with no hooks but usually plenty of eyes.

Mother (to small child): "Hush, dear, the sandman will be here soon."

Child: O.K. Mom, 'gimme' two lollipops and I won't tell Daddy.

Teacher: "What is the correct name for a cash register, Donald?"
Donald: "Scotch typewriter."

Bert: Ah, midnight, the time when miracles happen.

Babs: I think . . .

Bert: What did I tell you?
